Part III Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III Yes No

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission:

Our mission is to educate, disciple and develop young people to make their dreams a reality, glorify God, and use their gifts to transform their community.

2 Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ? Yes No

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O.

3 Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services? Yes No

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O.

4 Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.

4a (Code:) (Expenses $ 122,964 including grants of $ 122,964) (Revenue $)

Ndoto provides school tuition, school supplies, uniforms, meals, boarding (if necessary) and medical expenses for the students accepted into the program. We serve approximately 207 students and give these students the ability to receive an education, as they would not be able to afford tuition on their own. Without this education, these children would not be able to thrive in their communities. The organization also pays for medical care for the students, including one student whose medical expenses for his cancer were paid by Ndoto. Without this money, he would not have survived. Instead, he is cancer free and back in school. The students are also disciplined through visitation by staff members to their schools. The students are also encouraged to give back to their community by doing service work or mentoring younger students.

4b (Code:) (Expenses $ 13,441 including grants of $) (Revenue $)

Ndoto would not be as successful as it is without its Kenyan staff. The staff not only pays school fees, buys supplies and takes the students to the doctor when they are sick, but they invest in and mentor these young people. This is an important part of our work, because all of our Kenyan staff have come from poor and struggling backgrounds themselves. They are able to take their experiences (many of which have been difficult) and use them for good to teach the students. This is a key part of our development as we use local people for our work instead of large teams of people from abroad. This aids in the community impact we seek to make and it creates jobs in an economy that often times experiences 60%+ unemployment.

4c (Code:) (Expenses $ 10,189 including grants of $) (Revenue $)

Retreats occur twice a year and are our biggest events. We host both an April and a December retreat and the students are divided into the lower grades and the upper grades. These two events are the only time we are able to gather all of the students in one place. There is a speaker to teach them and we take them to a fun venue to expose them to new things and to new areas. We play games, eat, have inspirational conversations, sing and help them bond with each other. This is where some of our greatest teaching occurs and it is where we get our sense of unity with the students. These retreats are times where students are given a chance to open up and share their struggles. They are able to ask questions and be mentored and guided by people who care about them.

4d Other program services (Describe in Schedule O.)
(Expenses $ 7,574 including grants of $) (Revenue $)

4e Total program service expenses ▶ 154,168

Part V Supplemental Information

Provide the information required by Part I, line 2 (monitoring of funds); Part I, line 3, column (f) (accounting method; amounts of investments vs. expenditures per region); Part II, line 1 (accounting method); Part III (accounting method); and Part III, column (c) (estimated number of recipients), as applicable. Also complete this part to provide any additional information (see instructions).

All prospective students must fill out an application indicating information about themselves, their education up to that point, their family's financial situation and any children for whom school fees are being paid. Throughout our vetting and interview process, we visit and follow up with the student and their family members to confirm if the information on the application is true. All of this is documented on the application. If the student is accepted, a file is started on that student. The file includes all money paid for that student's school fees, how often and when they are given uniforms and necessary supplies. This file remains in the Ndoto office and is used often.

No money is given to the students or their families directly. Money is paid by our staff to the schools, offices, and school supply vendors. Every cent that is spent is documented and has a receipt or voucher to back it up showing when it was paid, to whom and for what purpose.

While school fees vary based on grade, location, and academic status, students and parents are made aware of what is covered by Ndoto and what is not covered. This helps to ensure the students are treated fairly. The list of what Ndoto does and does not cover is listed in a contract type document that all students and their parents must sign when they enter the program. We go through each point on the contract with the students and parents in person allowing for questions and ensuring clarity and understanding.

When funds are used in Kenya, there is a process used to ensure transparency, honesty and the correct use of funds. In addition to a budget that is set and approved ahead of time, all funds are counted in the morning and evening in the presence of two staff members that do not have access to the funds at any other time during the day. There is a locked, fire-proof cas box used for daily activities and a safe and bank accounts used for longer term care of funds. After two staff members count cash in the morning, it is recorded against the previous evenings count to make sure the numbers match. Then, a different staff member goes to the bank to get the cash needed for that day's activities (all of which has been planned in advance) and gives it to a different staff member who is in charge of dispensing the money and making sure it is to be used towards the days planned activities. This assures there is not a lot of unused cash in the box or around the office). All receipts and documentation for the money used must be turned in to the bookkeeper each day. The bookkeeper never has access to the funds. The bookkeeper then accounts for the receipts and matches those numbers against the money used for the day; plus, the morning and evening count of funds. Funds withdrawn are tracked online, and a monthly report of all transactions is approved and signed off by the executive director as well. This ensures the funds are used properly and are accounted for as well. This also ensures one or two people do not have the power to collude and steal or misuse funds.
